

Dear Residents

Please see below the crime record for the period from 1st July to 15th July.
Very pleasing that there have been no burglaries and vehicle crime has dropped.
Very sad that the primary school was recently targeted by thieves and that vandals threw eggs at someone's door.

If you notice groups of youths in an area and are not happy about what they are doing then please call police on the appropriate number depending on circumstances 101 or, if it is happening at the time, 999. This sort of behaviour is very rare in Shortlands and we all need to work together to insure it stays this way. After today I'm on leave returning on Wednesday 26/07/17 but Russell will be available.

Take care & thanks again for your continuing help & support.

Kind Regards

Adam
